

Siopa Bláthanna

Flower Shop

Gaeilge	Béarla	'English-type' pronunciation
Ba mhaith liom bláthanna a cheannach	I would like to buy some flowers	Bah wah lum blaw-han-nah ah kyan-ock
An bhfuil siopa bláthanna sa sráidbhaile?	Is there a flower shop in the village?	On will shup-ah blaw-han-nah suh srawd wall-eh?
Cén ócáid atá i gceist?	What is the occasion?	Kane oak-odd ah-thaw i gesht?
Cé mhéad ar mhaith leat caitheamh orthu?	How much would you like to spend on them?	Kay vade air wah lath cah-iv air?
Le haghaidh do chailín ar lá fhéile Vailintín?	For your girlfriend on St. Valentine's day?	Leh eye duh koll-een air law eh-leh Valentine?
Bíonn tóir ar rósanna dearga	Red roses are very popular	Been roas-ah jar-gah on cuh-teen-tah
An féidir leat iad a sheachadadh?	Can you deliver them?	On fay-dir lath eed a hoch-ad-ah?
Is féidir, ach beidh €5 sa bhreis air	We can deliver them, but it will cost €5 extra	Iss fay-dir, ock bay coo-ig euro sah vresh air
Teastaíonn dath corcra uaim, le dul le mo ghúna	I would like purple ones, to match my dress	Tass-teen dah goh-rum oo-em, leh dull leh muh goo-nah

Dála an Bhéarla, bíonn bealaí difriúla ann chun an rud céanna a rá i nGaeilge; ní luaitear ach bealach amháin anseo / As in English, there are different ways to say things in Irish; only one way is given here.

*Tá fuaimeanna sa Ghaeilge nach bhfuil sa Bhéarla; mar sin níl ach ceann de na 'English-type' pronunciations' foirfe / *There are sounds in Irish that are not present in English; therefore the 'English-type' pronunciations are not perfect.